WINDOWS & DOORS

Quality where it counts

Unparalleled performance, finish and sustainability credentials make Accoya® the ideal material for windows and doors.

- › Fewer call backs
Accoya's stability means easier installation and less snagging saving you time, money and leaving you more time to grow your business
- › More efficient handling and processing
Accoya is lighter weight than hardwood and comes in fixed width sections based on common joinery sizes. Faster processing and less waste
- › Excellent machinability
Accoya's consistency and low level of grain raising makes it easy to work with and smoother to install and coat
- › Ideal for coating
Accoya allows you to offer a wide choice of coatings for different looks as well as enhanced performance
- › Sustainably sourced
Offer your customers the truly sustainable choice with a timber that's plantation grown, non toxic and provides significantly better U-Values than hardwood
