

Smurfit Kappa called in PDC Consultancy to transform an existing oil storage facility, into a new transport office.

Works under taken in this project:

- Removal of existing shutter door
- Partial infill existing opening with brickwork and new double glazed opening window
- Drylining to all external walls
- New suspended ceiling over whole area
- New electrical installation with sockets and lighting
- Composite partitions incorporating sliding hatch

Before

After

